- * ) CORIS Romania shall not be liable for any charges and fees, and such liability will completely lay with the Insured Person requesting the information.

4.1.2. Payments made in advance in cases of card loss/theft

Should the Insured Person, during the Travel, report the loss/theft of the Card, CORIS Romania shall take the required action for the payment of the immediate and urgent expenses of the Insured Person, which expenses shall be based on supporting documents.

- Special exclusions

- a. there are not covered the expenses by reason of fraudulent use of the lost/stolen debit card;
- b. there are not covered the financial losses of the Insured Person;
- c. there are not covered the financial losses due to exchange rate fluctuations.

4.2. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE ABROAD

4.2.1 Payments made in advance for medical expenses

- Should the Insured Person, during the Travel, suffer an Accident or an acute Sickening, and should there be required his/her hospitalisation, or ambulatory medical attendance, CORIS Romania shall take the required action for the advance payment of the Emergency Medical Expenses up to the maximum Insured Amount for the 24/24 hours Support Program all across the world in the Table of Insured Events.
- Considering that the Insured Person is also covered, according to the Table of Insured Events, by the Insurance Program, such expenses shall be included to the Emergency Medical Expenses under Art. 5.1, and shall be borne by the Insurer within the limits of the Insured Amount as mentioned within the Table of Insured Events for such coverage.
- Special exclusions: there are not covered the financial losses due to exchange rate fluctuations.

4.2.2. Emergency medical transport:

- In cases of Accident or Sickening that require the Insured Person to be hospitalised as a patient, CORIS Romania shall take the required action in order to secure Emergency Medical Transport, either aerial and/or terrestrial, as well as the required communication for moving the Insured Person when the same is in critical condition to the closest hospital that can provide the medical attendance he/she needs. CORIS shall pay in advance for the required expenses for transporting the Insured Person to the hospital, and for the required communication for transport purposes, as well as for other usual expenses arising from such services it organises.
- The Emergency Medical Transport must be ordered, or subsequently confirmed, by CORIS Romania or by the Attending Medic who certifies the fact that the seriousness or the nature of the Accident or of the Sickening of the same require Emergency Medical Transport.
- There are covered the expenses for the transport from the place of the Accident or the temporary residence to the closest medical unit by ambulance services that are recognized for providing emergency medical attendance. There are also covered the transport expenses made by request from the Attending Medic for the transfer of the Insured Person to a specialty clinic.
- All the arrangements involved by the Emergency Medical Transport should be made for the most direct and economic possible route.
- The expenses for the Emergency Medical Transport should be:
  - a. recommended, or subsequently confirmed, by the Attending Medic;
  - b. required by the local regulations for such transport of persons.

- The usual and reasonable expenses relate to the Emergency Medical Transport shall be covered up to the maximum Insured Amount for the 24/24 hours Support Program across the world within the Table of Insured Events.
- Considering that the Insured Person is also covered, according to the Table of Insured Events, by the Insurance Program, such expenses shall be included to the Emergency Medical Expenses under Art. 5.1, and shall be borne by the Insurer within the limits of the Insured Amount as mentioned within the Table of Insured Events for such coverage.
- Special exclusions: there are not covered the financial losses due to exchange rate fluctuations.

4.2.3. Medical Repatriation

- After hospitalisation and/or cure, should the Insured Person be unable to continue his/her travel, CORIS Romania along with the Attending Medic shall organise the return of the Insured Person to Romania, or as appropriate to the country the Insured Person is a citizen of. Should the seriousness of the circumstances so require CORIS Romania shall provide proper medical personnel to accompany the Insured Person during the travel back.
- In the event that the Attending Medic would consider that the Insured Person is transportable from the medical standpoint for purposes of medical repatriation, and CORIS Romania organise such repatriation, but the Insured Person reject such repatriation, the Insurer shall no longer be responsible for any medical expenses and any repatriation to take place after the date of the possible medical repatriation.
- The covered expenses are those for the medical transport and attendance, including those for the medical services and facilities arising in relation to the Medical Repatriation of the Insured Person.
- All the arrangements involved by the Medical Repatriation shall be made by CORIS Romania for the most direct and economic possible route.
- The expenses for the Medical Repatriation should be:
  - a. a result of the repatriation recommendations from the Attending Medic;
  - b. required by the local regulations of such transport of persons;
  - c. organised and authorised in advance by CORIS Romania;
- The usual and reasonable expenses relate to the Medical Repatriation shall be covered up to the maximum Insured Amount for the 24/24 hours Support Program across the world within the Table of Insured Events.
- Considering that the Insured Person is also covered, according to the Table of Insured Events, by the Insurance Program, such expenses shall be included to the Emergency Medical Expenses under Art. 5.1, and shall be borne by the Insurer within the limits of the Insured Amount as mentioned within the Table of Insured Events for such coverage..
- Special exclusions:
  - a. there are not covered the Repatriation Expenses made by the Insured Person under the conditions that there is no express recommendation from the Attending Medic for Medical Repatriation to confirm that the Insured Person cannot travel as a regular passenger, and without a medical export;
  - b. there are not covered the financial losses due to exchange rate fluctuations.

4.2.4. Travel of an acquaintance in medical emergency cases
